What's New at the PCC

Saturday May 19 marked our first ever Mom's Support Group. Four mothers were in attendance along with 6 children and 2 babies on the way. The group will meet once a month for fellowship with women who are going through similar experiences in motherhood. We had a great time getting to know these clients better and hope that this group will continue to grow with time.

We've also been given quite a few donations of new bibles to hand out to those clients who express an interest in one. Thank you to all who took the time and money to do this for our clients.

First Christian Church in Augusta held a Mother's Day diaper drive for us and brought in diapers, wipes, formula, wash and other much needed items. Andover Assembly of God brought in other baby items plus a box of bibles. And all month long in April the First Baptist Church collected baby items for us and brought in so much we can't even begin to list it all!

It's an exciting time to be involved with your local Pregnancy Care Center!

Volunteer Spotlight

Kay Schmidt
Client Counselor

Meet Kay Schmidt, a retired speech therapist with the Augusta School District. She has been volunteering with the Pregnancy Care Center since April of 2004. Kay brings a fun, warm energy to the Center that carries over to the counseling room. Laughter is usually infectious whenever she's around. Kay is always ready to pitch in and help whenever it's needed!

Kay has been a member of the First Baptist Church in Augusta for 5 years and a deaconess for 3 years. She's lived in Augusta since 1978. She is married to Marvin Schmidt and enjoys spending her spare time reading, rubber stamping, dining out, and going to the movies. She also volunteers with the Dept. on Aging by shopping for seniors, and works different jobs for her church as they come along.

In regards to her work with us, Kay says, "I come here to serve the Lord and I feel I am here in obedience to Him." She enjoys her time spent here very much.

Kay can be found at the PCC every Tuesday, all year long. Her hard work and dedication to her job is deeply appreciated. We know she's here as a gift to us from God.
